Introduction

Congratulations on taking the SAT! Your Question-and-Answer Service (QAS) for the March 2019 SAT includes three parts: this guide, which will help you understand your scores; a copy of the test you took; and a customized OAS report that lists these details about each question:

- answer you gave
- best or correct answer
- question type
- difficulty level

USING YOUR QAS REPORT

- With the report in hand, read each question in your test booklet, then check your results. Look at questions you answered incorrectly to see whether you might have misread the question or mismarked the answer.
- Print your online score report at studentscores.collegeboard.org to keep track of how you did on the different types of questions. This can help you understand your academic strengths and identify areas for improvement.
- If you think you detect errors in how you recorded your answers-for example, a group of questions that you recall answering differently than what you see on the report-you may want to consider ordering a more rigorous form of score verification. See sat.org/verify-scores for more details.
- If you took the optional SAT Essay, view a copy of your essay online at collegeboard.org/viewessay. Take a look at the Essay scoring information on pages $14-16$ of this guide to help you interpret your scores.

SCORING YOUR TEST

Use the scoring information and score conversion tables on pages 4-13 to verify the score on your test. The scoring worksheets and score conversion tables are specific to the test you took. Don't try to score any other tests using them.

LEARNING FROM YOUR SAT EXPERIENCE

Now that you're familiar with the test, you should have a better sense of the kinds of questions you'll see on the SAT. You're also likely to be more comfortable with the test-taking process, including the time limits. If you're thinking of taking the test again, you should know that on average, students who take the SAT a second time see an increase in their scores. In addition, your test results are a powerful tool for getting personalized instruction to improve your scores. At satpractice.org you can access Official SAT Practice on Khan Academy ${ }^{\oplus}$, where you can use your actual SAT results to receive practice recommendations tailored to help you work on the areas that you need to focus on. Visit satpractice.org to learn more.

Scoring Your SAT

SCORES OVERVIEW

The SAT provides more information about your learning by reporting more scores than ever before. Each of the SAT Suite of Assessments (SAT, PSAT/NMSOT ${ }^{\oplus}$, PSAT ${ }^{\text {TM }} 10$, and PSAT ${ }^{\text {TM }}$ 8/9) reports test scores and cross-test scores on a common scale. Additionally, subscores provide more diagnostic information. For more details about scores, visit sat.org/scores.

HOW TO CALCULATE YOUR TEST SCORES

Get Set Up

1. You'll need the customized OAS report with your answers. You'll also need the answer key (pages 4-5) and conversion tables (pages 11-13) provided in this section.
2. Using the answer key, count up your total correct answers for each section. You may want to write the number of correct answers for each section at the bottom of that section in the answer key.
3. Using your marked-up answer key and the conversion tables, follow the directions on the next few pages to get all of your scores.

GET SECTION AND TOTAL SCORES

Your total score on the SAT is the sum of your Evidence-Based Reading and Writing section score and your Math section score. To get your total score, you will convert your raw score for each section-the number of questions you got right in that section-into the scaled score for that section, then calculate the total score.

Calculating Your Evidence-Based Reading and Writing Section Score

Calculate your SAT Evidence-Based Reading and Writing Section score (it's on a scale of 200-800) by first determining your Reading Test score and your Writing and Language Test score. Here's how:

1. Use the Answer Key to determine your raw scores (the number of correct answers).
2. Go to Raw Score Conversion Table 1: Section and Test Scores on page 11. Look in the "Raw Score" column for your raw score, and match it to the number in the "Reading Test Score" column.
3. Do the same with Section 2 to determine your Writing and Language Test score.
4. Add your Reading Test score to your Writing and Language Test score.
5. Multiply that number by 10. This is your Evidence-Based Reading and Writing Section score.

Calculating Your Math Section Score

Calculate your SAT Math section score (it's on a scale of 200-800), as follows:

1. Count the number of correct answers you got on the Math Test - No Calculator and the Math Test - Calculator.
2. Add the number of correct answers you got on each portion.
3. As you did with your Reading and Writing and Language Test scores, go to the Raw Score Conversion Table 1: Section and Test Scores to turn your raw score into your Math section score. Find your raw score in the "Raw Score" column and match it to the number in the same row in the "Math Section Score" column.

Calculating Your Total Score

Add your Evidence-Based Reading and Writing section score to your Math section score. The result is your total score on the SAT, on a scale of 400-1600.

GET CROSS-TEST SCORES

The SAT also reports two cross-test scores: Analysis in History/Social Studies and Analysis in Science. These scores are based on questions in the Reading, Writing and Language, and Math Tests that ask you to think analytically about texts and questions in these subject areas.

Cross-test scores are reported on a scale of 10-40.

Calculating Your Cross-Test Scores

You can use the cross-test score tables beginning on the next page to calculate your cross-test scores as follows:

1. Find the questions in each section that count toward each cross-test score. These are shown with a "Y" next to the question number in the tables. Refer to your QAS report to see which of those questions you answered correctly on the test, and then check the box for each correct answer.
2. Count the number of correct answers for each cross-test area and record that as your raw score for that area.
3. Use the conversion table on page 12 to determine your scaled score (10-40) for each area.

Cross-Test Scores Tables - Determine Cross-Test Raw Scores

$Y=$ Counts toward Cross-Test score. On your QAS report, look up every question marked "Y" below to see if you answered it correctly. If so, check off the box for that question below.

GET SUBSCORES

Subscores provide more detailed information about your strengths in specific areas within literacy and math.
Subscores are reported on a scale of 1-15.

- The Command of Evidence subscore is based on questions from both the Reading Test and the Writing and Language Test that ask you to interpret and use evidence found in a wide range of passages and informational graphics, such as graphs, tables, and charts.
- The Expression of Ideas subscore is based on questions from the Writing and Language Test that focus on topic development, organization, and rhetorically effective use of language.
- The Words in Context subscore is based on questions from both the Reading Test and the Writing and Language Test that address the meaning in context of words/phrases and rhetorical word choice.
- The Standard English Conventions subscore is based on questions from the Writing and Language Test that focus on sentence structure, usage, and punctuation.
- The Heart of Algebra subscore is based on questions from the Math Test that focus on linear equations and inequalities.
- The Problem Solving and Data Analysis subscore is based on questions from the Math Test that focus on quantitative reasoning, the interpretation and synthesis of data, and solving problems in rich and varied contexts.
- The Passport to Advanced Math subscore is based on questions from the Math Test that focus on topics central to the ability of students to progress to more advanced mathematics, such as understanding the structure of expressions, reasoning with more complex equations, and interpreting and building functions.

Calculating Your Subscores

You can use the subscore tables beginning on the next page to calculate your subscores as follows:

1. Find the questions that count toward each subscore. These are shown with a " $Y$ " next to the question number in the tables. Refer to your OAS report to see which of those questions you answered correctly on the test, and then check the box for each correct answer.
2. Count the number of correct answers for each area and record that as your raw score for that area.
3. Finally, use the conversion table on page 13 to determine your scaled score (1-15) for each area.

Subscores Tables - Determine Subscore Raw Scores

$Y=$ Counts toward subscore. On your QAS report, look up every question marked " $Y$ " to see if you answered it correctly. If so, check off the box for that question.

THE SAT ESSAY

The SAT Essay assesses reading, analysis, and writing skills. It's optional and given at the end of the SAT. Essays are evaluated for demonstrated comprehension of a source text, quality of analysis, and quality of writing. See the Essay Scoring Guide on pages 15 and 16 for more information.

- Total questions: 1 prompt, with points to consider and directions
- 1 passage
- Time allotted: 50 minutes to read and analyze the passage and to develop a written response
On the SAT Essay, you're asked to demonstrate college- and careerreadiness proficiency in reading, analysis, and writing through comprehending a high-quality source text, producing a cogent and clear written analysis of that text, and supporting that analysis with critical reasoning and evidence drawn from the source. The Essay prompt doesn't ask you to take a stand on the author's point of view but instead to analyze how the author builds a persuasive argument.
Your essay will receive three scores, each on a scale of 2-8:

1. Reading: Demonstrated comprehension of the passage, its main ideas, and its important details.
2. Analysis: Demonstrated understanding of the analytical task, and effective analysis of the author's use of evidence, reasoning, and/or stylistic or persuasive elements (and/or features of your own choice).
3. Writing: Communication of information and ideas in a structured, cohesive manner, using precise language and a variety of sentence structures and showing a command of the conventions of standard written English.
Your Essay scores aren't combined with each other or with any other scores on the SAT. (They don't, for instance, affect the Evidence-Based Reading and Writing section score or the total test score.)
